

WAREHOUSE CREATED FOR LOCAL AGENCIES
FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

PIERRE – A warehouse on Pierre's truck bypass is now accepting donated items for non-profit agencies assisting with flood relief. The inter-agency warehouse is located behind Lamb Auto Sales, 801 N. Garfield Avenue.

Adventists Disaster Services is managing the warehouse. The organization is working with other non-profit agencies to provide relief services to those affected by flooding in the Pierre and Fort Pierre communities. Some of the items needed include: bottled water, sports drinks, snack food, paper or plastic plates, bowls, knives, forks and spoons, baby diapers, baby food, non-perishable food items, dog and cat food, paper towels, toilet paper, hand sanitizer, work gloves, water boots, flashlight and batteries.

The warehouse is open from 8 a.m. to 9 p.m. daily. For more information contact Phyllis Alexander at (605) 773-2372.
